

September 17, 1970

Mr. Naclemento
Holiday Inn
Hollywood, California

Dear Mr. Naclemento:

Mr. Castro of the Brazilian Consulate has been kind enough to offer his good services and deliver this letter to you. He will also be requesting that you grant me an interview.

Our company, International Management, Inc. and its affiliates was founded by Mark H. McCormack. We represent a number of sports personalities as their business consultants, negotiators, attorneys, etc. on an overall basis. We are the largest and best known firm in the world in this business.

Among our clients are such people as Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Jack Nicklaus, and many other golfers; Jackie Stewart and others in motor racing; Rod Laver and others in tennis; Jean Claude Killy and others in skiing.

We are very anxious to discuss with you our representing you in a similar matter. We believe we could do some very significant things for you throughout the world which would be in addition to and not at all in conflict with your present arrangements.

As our name implies, we are an international organization and maintain offices in London, New York, Los Angeles, Cleveland, and Japan with affiliated offices in Australia and New Zealand.

We are keenly interested in a possible affiliation with you, especially with regard to promotional possibilities in the United Kingdom and the British Commonwealth. Also, we have