

Richard H. Simpson, Professor Emeritus, Richard H. Simpson Professorship of Accounting Emeritus (Honorary)

BBA, University of Massachusetts, 1958
MBA, University of North Carolina, 1961
PhD, University of North Carolina, 1967
CPA, North Carolina, 1964-1982

Teaching Experience:

Introductory Financial Accounting I
Introductory Managerial Accounting II
Intermediate Accounting I
Intermediate Accounting II
Advanced Accounting
Financial Accounting-MBA
Managerial Accounting-MBA
Accounting Theory-MSA
Financial Accounting Case Course-MSA

Research:

Each semester I prepare my own texts for Intermediate Accounting II and Advanced Accounting, 1980-present.
Each semester (until 2009) I prepared my own text for Intermediate Accounting I. (I no longer teach this course.)
Prepared 22 class problems, 63 homework problems, and twelve chapters of notes for managerial accounting, taught in the fall of 2012, spring 2013, and fall 2014
Fair Value Accounting, by Morton Backer, assisted by Richard H. Simpson
Three articles, one in the Accounting Review

Current Service:

Member of the Department Scholarship Awards Committee, 1980-present
Member, School Scholarship Awards Committee, 2003-present

Past Service, University of Massachusetts

Faculty Senate Member
Faculty Club, President and Treasurer
Five College Credit Union, Chair of the Supervisory Committee
Chair, Budget Subcommittee, Program and Budget Council of the Faculty Senate

Advisor, Accounting Association (a student club), 1990-2013

Past Service (continued):

SOM Personnel Committee Member-9 years

Departmental Personnel Committee Member, 30 plus years

Coordinator of the Introductory Financial Accounting Course

Coordinator of the MS in Accounting Program

Coordinator of the PhD Program in Accounting

Dean's Selection Committee

Town of Amherst., Town Meeting Member,

Town of Amherst, Member of the Finance Committee

Improvement of Minorities (AIM) Summer Camp Project, Accountant

Talawanda Head Start Program, Financial Advisor

Amherst Golf Club, Secretary and Treasurer

Mass. Society of CPA's, 2010, Career Achievement Award for Excellence in Accounting Education. (This is a new award that was presented to three faculty members.)

Awards:

Richard H. Simpson Professorship of Accounting (Former students have just finished raising $1,650,000 to fund the professorship in my honor. I was named honorary holder of this professorship in April of 2009 by the Isenberg School. Gave the faculty speech for the 2005 graduation ceremony of the Isenberg School of Management

College Teaching Award, 2003

Distinguished Faculty Member, 2003 (This award is presented to one faculty member each year by the UMASS Alumni Association with the award presented at the state house.)

Selected as the sole UMASS nominee for the National CASE Professor of the Year Award, which rewards professors who pursue and excel in the "scholarship of teaching" (I did not win.)

Accountant of the Year, UMASS Chapter of Beta Alpha Psi, 1987

Distinguished Teacher Award, 1982-1983 (Each year three faculty members are selected to receive this award, which can only be won once. I was last nominated in 2009 and received 9 nominations in total.)

Teaching:

Miami of Ohio, 1965-1967

University of Massachusetts, Amherst, 1967-present

(I have taught over 5,500 students in 49 years as a faculty member.)

CV-2014 11/18/14